

The Language Learning Center Nondiscrimination Statement:

Discrimination is Against the Law

The Language Learning Center complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex. The Language Learning Center does not exclude people or treat them differently because of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.

The Language Learning Center:

- Provides free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us, such as:

- Qualified sign language interpreters
- Written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, other formats)

- Provides free language services to people whose primary language is not English, such as:

- Qualified interpreters
- Information written in other languages

If you need these services, contact Lisa Torres at our front desk. If you believe that The Language Learning Center has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, you can file a grievance with: Merry Raber, facility Administrator. You can file a grievance in person or by mail, fax, or email. If you need help filing a grievance, Merry Raber is available to help you.

You may also file a civil rights complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Office for Civil Rights, electronically through the Office for Civil Rights Complaint Portal, available at <https://ocrportal.hhs.gov/ocr/portal/lobby.jsf>, or by mail or phone at:
